

1 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

2 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

3 DANIEL GONZALEZ and JEFFREY
4 HUGHES, et al.

5 Plaintiffs,

6 v.

7 DIAMOND RESORTS INTERNATIONAL
8 MARKETING, INC., et al.,

9 Defendants.

Case No.: 2:18-cv-00979-APG-NJK

ORDER AFFIRMING MAGISTRATE
JUDGE'S ORDER

[ECF Nos. 153, 186, 187]

9 The plaintiffs moved to amend their complaint to add claims under Missouri, Nevada,
10 North Carolina, and Washington state laws, and to add named plaintiffs who “seek to represent
11 the respective state classes in the states where they worked . . . .” ECF No. 153 at 4-5.
12 Magistrate Judge Koppe denied that motion because the plaintiffs unduly delayed filing it and 13 the defendants would be prejudiced by allowing the amendment. ECF No. 186. The plaintiffs 14 now appeal that denial. ECF No. 187.

15 Magistrate Judge Koppe found the motion to be non-dispositive and thus within her
16 authority to “hear and determine.” ECF No. 186 at 3-5. The plaintiffs disagree and urge me to 17 treat the motion as dispositive, so that I must consider the matter de novo under 28 U.S.C.
18 § 636(b)(1)(C) and Local Rule IB 3-2(b).

19 I agree with Judge Koppe’s determination that the motion to amend is not dispositive.
20 Reviewing her order under the more deferential standard of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A) and Local 21 Rule IB 3-1(a), Judge Koppe’s order is not “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.” I affirm the 22 order.
23

1 But out of an abundance of caution, I have also conducted a de novo review of the motion
2 to amend and related papers under Local Rule IB 3-2(b). Judge Koppe's order sets forth the
3 proper legal analyses and factual bases for the decision. Thus, under either standard of review, I
4 adopt and affirm Judge Koppe's order.

5 I THEREFORE ORDER that Magistrate Judge Koppe's order (ECF No. 186) is
6 affirmed in its entirety, and the plaintiffs' motion to amend (ECF No. 153) and objection to the 7 order (ECF No. 187) are denied.

8 Dated: November 3, 2020.
